

Edinburgh job – paid internship

Collective Gallery on Calton Hill are advertising for a Digital Intern to help them out. There are various conditions as to age which you can read on their site. There is a link below.

This is the text of the advert:

Digital Intern

Collective is looking for an intern who can help to review our current systems and identify and prioritise solutions to support the growth of the organisation.

The Digital Internships programme provides paid internships to unemployed graduates, aged 18–30 with an HND qualification or above.

Interns will gain paid work experience while supporting organisations through six-week projects designed to deliver meaningful digital change and growth.
