

Lewis Stevenson wins William Hill Goal of the Round award

Hibs' defender Lewis Stevenson has won the William Hill Goal of the Round with his strike against Berwick Rangers in the Scottish Cup quarter-final.

The popular left back is Hibs' longest serving player having made his debut against Ayr United on 21st September 2005.

He has played 261 times for the club and scored five goals.

In 2007, he was named man of the match when hibs won the CIS League Cup, beating Kilmarnock 5-1 at Hampden.

Lewis overwhelmingly won the public vote with 74% of votes cast, with Craig Sibbald of Falkirk coming second with 20% of the vote.

Former Hibs team-mate Leigh Griffiths was third with 5%.

The goal can be viewed here.

Results in full:

Lewis Stevenson – Hibernian: 74%

Craig Sibbald – Falkirk: 20%

Leigh Griffiths – Celtic: 5%

Danny Devine – Inverness Caledonian Thistle: 1%

Photo by John Preece