

Man charged with serious assault following fight in bar

A 25-year-old man is due to appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court today in connection with a serious assault.

The incident happened on Sunday, December 21, when a fight broke out between two groups within Café Habana on Greenside Lane before spilling outside.

Police subsequently released CCTV images and a man was arrested and charged.