

Travel advice for Hibs' fans heading to Dumbarton

Hibs' supporters travelling to Dumbarton tomorrow evening (08 April, kick off 7.45pm) are advised the match is ticket only, meaning there will be no pay at the gate.

The Hibernian Ticket Office will be open from 10am-5pm as usual on Wednesday, with tickets available for the Dumbarton game in addition to Sunday's Edinburgh Derby, the William Hill Scottish Cup Semi Final and 2015-2016 Season Tickets.

Hibernian supporters attending the fixture against Dumbarton at the Bet Butler Stadium, Castle Road, Dumbarton (G82 1JJ) will occupy the west side of the Main Stand at the stadium.

Supporters coaches will be parked in Leven Street under police direction, supporters choosing to travel by car can park at the stadium and a small charge will apply.

Parking is also available away from the ground out with the restricted area. Fans should allow extra time to travel to Dumbarton and up to date traffic information is available on the Traffic Scotland website or on Twitter @trafficscotland.

Fans should also be aware that if they choose to park at the stadium they will not be permitted to leave the car park until it is safe to do so and there is likely to be a delay of about 15/20 minutes.
