

Five things you need to know today

The Green House Thrift Shop

Edinburgh Leisure free 7 day pass

Edinburgh Central MSP advice surgeries

Russell Watson at the Queen's Hall

Teddy Bears Picnic

If you are having a spring clean then you could give your donations of anything except electrical goods, car seats and helmets to The Green House Thrift Shop at 64 Niddrie Mains Road EH16 4BG. Drop your stuff with them any weekday between 10am and 4pm.

More information from greenhouse@communityalliancetrust.org.uk

Edinburgh Leisure is offering you a chance to try out a free 7 day pass for their facilities to see which ones you like best and you can find out more here.

Edinburgh Central MSP Marco Biagi holds his advice surgeries across the city centre:

Mondays at 6.30pm at 77 Buccleuch Street EH8 9LS

On the second Monday of the month he also holds surgeries as follows:

10.30am Saughtonhall Community Association

12.00pm St Bride's Community Centre

1.30pm Stockbridge Library (except public holidays)

You may also contact him by clicking here.

Russell Watson is one of the world's most prominent tenors, selling in excess of seven million albums worldwide. His first album The Voice was a world's first when it held simultaneous number ones in the US and the UK. Tomorrow night he is playing the Queen's Hall and you may still be able to get a ticket or two here....

Sign up here for a daily email from The Edinburgh Reporter !
[mc4wp_form]

If you are reading this article on paper and would like to visit the website then scan the QR code above with a smartphone or tablet and you will be taken straight there.