

Free tennis lessons for beginners this weekend

One year of free tennis lessons is on offer in St Margaret's Park, Corstorphine starting Saturday 9th May 2.30pm – 4.30pm for 50 weeks

National sports charity 'Tennis For Free' has served up an ace for Corstorphine and the surrounding area by investing in a 50 week programme of free tennis lessons hoping hundreds of people across the area can make a racket at Edinburgh's St Margaret's Park courts.

The charity has created a partnership with Edinburgh Leisure and the new St Margaret's Park Head Tennis Coach Gordon Watson. Gordon Watson to help provide free coach led tennis sessions for all the family starting on Saturday 9th May between 2:30-4:30pm.

You don't even need a racket as all equipment is provided free of charge.
