

Hibs release three Development Squad players

Hibs' Development squad players Kleton Perntreou, Neil Martyniuk and Taylor Hendry have left the club.

Goalkeeper Perntreou, made two first team appearances, making his senior debut as a substitute at Cowdenbeath in November and then recorded a clean sheet during the goalless draw against Queen of the South at Easter Road.

Defender Martyniuk made 27 starts and two substitute appearances at Development League level last season and ended the campaign on loan at League Two club Berwick Rangers. He featured for the first team during last season's pre-season campaign, including the opening friendly at Vale of Leithen, and scored the decisive penalty in the Little Big Shot Scottish FA Youth Cup win at Aberdeen.

Striker Taylor Hendry joined the Academy from Ipswich Town in the summer of 2013 and last season the 19-year-old scored six goals from 27 starts and seven substitute appearances.

A spokesman said: "Everybody associated with the club would like to wish Kleton, Neil and Taylor all the best as they embark on the next chapters in their careers and thank them for their contribution."
