

Hibs to face Rangers in play-off semi finals

Hibs will face Rangers over two legs in the play-off semi finals after the Ibrox side fought back from a goal down to draw 1-1 with Queen of the South earlier today.

The Doonhamers took the lead in the 35th minute through Derek Lyle but former Hearts' full back Lee Wallace grabbed the equaliser on the hour mark.

Both sides had chances in the remaining minutes but Rangers held on to win the tie 3-2 on aggregate.

The first leg of the semi-finals will take place at Ibrox on Wednesday 20 May (kick off 7.45pm).

Tickets for Hibs' fans will go on sale at 10am on Monday 18 May. A priority window will be in operation based on loyalty points totals.

Tickets can be purchased online (NO BOOKING FEES) at <https://www.eticketing.co.uk/hibernianfc>, in person at the Ticket Office or by telephoning the call centre on 0844 844 1875 option 1. There will be an allocation for online and ticket office

Tickets for the second leg, which will take place at Easter Road on Saturday 23rd May (Kick off noon), will be on sale from 10am on Monday 18 May until 10am on Tuesday 19 May, only to those supporters with 180 loyalty points or more, limited to one ticket per person. From 10am on Tuesday 19 May any remaining tickets will be on general sale, again limited to one ticket per person.

The winners of the semi-final will face Motherwell.
