

Hibs unveil new strip for next season

The new Hibernian home kit for the 15/16 season has been unveiled.

Last season's bottle green jersey proved to be unpopular with the supporters despite that club insisting that it was a tribute to the Famous Five as it replicated the strip worn during the years that they were born and included an embroidered message on the shoulder reading 'Their memory marches on.'

It also included a large red Marathon Bet logo on the front.

Next season's kit comes with a return to the famous white sleeves which was fans wanted and the sponsors logo is in white.

It will be available in-store from Friday 19 June
