

It's Bookbug Week!

BookBug Week was launched at Gorgie City Farm earlier today.

Counting sheep for good bedtime reading, children from Murrayfield Nursery snuggle up with childrens' author Debi Gliori, Bookbug and a couple of sheep at Gorgie City Farm to discover whether sharing a bedtime story or counting sheep is best for a good night's sleep.

Debi is pictured with (from left) Blair Dougall, Harry Wallace, Anna McOscar and Siddharth Kamath (correct).
