

Yarn bombing speaks out against student flats

 The yarn bomb in this photo says “more social housing fewer bldy students” .

It’s a development being built on the site of the former motor garage – Chathams on Abbeyhill and the protest is probably a dig at the number of student housing building developments in the city.

This is a development for 422 students, and will be available later this summer.

It takes a lot of time to knit these ‘protests’ and I love it when they appear – albeit quietly.
