

Police release CCTV image following public indecency in city centre

Police in Edinburgh investigating a public indecency last year have released CCTV footage of a man they wish to trace in connection with their investigation.

The incident happened around 4pm on Friday 5th December within the Lo Demore store in St Mary's Street.

The suspect is described as white, between 45 and 47-years-old, 6ft tall with a large build, dark hair and balding on top. He was wearing dark trousers and a black jacket.

The man pictured on these images is of interest to the investigation and anyone with information that can help police identify him is asked to come forward.

Constable Nicola Findlay said: "This incident was in a city centre business premises and was witnessed by a member of staff.

"We are keen to hear from anyone who can assist with our ongoing enquiries and anyone who recognises the male in the footage should contact police immediately."

Those with information can contact Police Scotland on 101 or alternatively, the charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
