

Two arrested following disturbance outside University

Two men have been arrested and charged in connection with a disturbance in Chambers Street, Edinburgh today.

The incident happened outside a University of Edinburgh building where a student occupation is underway.

A report will be sent to the Procurator Fiscal.

The Edinburgh Reporter took these photos yesterday evening when passing the building. We estimate there were about 40 people standing on the pavement wearing high vis jackets and who appeared to be security personnel.