

Edinburgh Taxi Trade Children's Outing 2015

The 69TH Edinburgh Taxi Trade Children's Outing took place today with a send off from the Lord Provost and well-known Edinburgh fundraiser, Tom Gilzean. Here's Tom leading them off on their trip!

Tom led the Edinburgh Taxi Outing parade again today. Taxi drivers give up their time and take a couple of hundred...

Posted by Tom Gilzean Appreciation Society on Tuesday, 9 June 2015

The trip is organised and funded by taxi drivers and gives a day out to the beach for children with special needs, life-limiting conditions and terminal illnesses.

The taxis were all decorated with balloons or decorated as floats

They assembled at the ice rink car park at Murrayfield Stadium early today when judging and presentation of prizes took place for best float taxi, best balloon taxi, best fancy dressed driver and best fancy dressed child.

Posted by Edinburgh Taxi Trade Childrens Outing on Tuesday, 9 June 2015

They then left Murrayfield heading under Police escort through the city and along the coast to Yellowcraigs (near Dirleton, East Lothian) for a fun-filled afternoon before heading home about 4pm.

[\[View the story "Edinburgh Taxi Trade Children's Outing 2015"\]](#)

on Storify]

We are sure there are some tired wee souls tonight! (and then there are the children....)