FLYBE EXPANDS SUMMER SCHEDULE FROM EDINBURGH

Flybe, Europe's largest regional airline, has started operating its brand new daily service between Cardiff and Edinburgh with one way fares from £29.99, including taxes and charges. Flights will increase to twice a day from 31st August 2015.

In addition, the airline has also boosted the number of flights it operates to Jersey for peak summer travel, to five a week, with the addition to its weekend service of services also on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays between 20th July and 31st August, 2015.

As well as being the recognised gateway to the country and rich in ancient history, Cardiff, Wales' Capital city, provides sporting excitement especially for rugby enthusiasts at the Millennium Stadium as well as top class entertainment and shopping. Shuttle buses run every 25 minutes to and from the airport direct into the heart of the city.

Flybe's 2015 Summer Schedule from Edinburgh Airport features 12 routes with a choice of up to 220 flights a week.
