

Witness appeal following serious assault on Laverockbank Road

Police are appealing for witnesses following a serious assault against two people on Laverockbank Road which took place around 1am on Sunday 31st May after the two victims and four suspects left a business premises separately.

The first suspect assaulted the 34-year-old male victim, and the 28-year-old female victim was assaulted when she tried to intervene.

The remaining three suspects then began to attack the victims also, and the female victim was knocked unconscious.

Both of the victims sustained facial injuries, which were subsequently discovered to be more serious than first thought.

Police attended at the time of the incident, and officers have conducted various enquiries in an effort to trace the suspects.

The first suspect is described as a white man in his 30s, 5ft 10inches tall with a medium build. He had a shaved head and a heart tattoo with a keyhole on his right forearm.

The second suspect is described a white man in his 30s, 5ft 11inches tall with a heavy build. He had short dark hair and was wearing a dark jacket.

The third suspect was a white man in his 40s, 5ft 10inches tall with a slim build. He was wearing a light-coloured shirt.

The fourth suspect is described as a white woman, 5ft 6inches tall, with a medium build. She had long dark hair and was wearing a black jacket.

Detective Sergeant Clark Martin said: "This was a seemingly unprovoked and brutal attack and we are eager to trace anyone who may have witnessed the incident, or has any information which can help with our enquiries.

"We're also eager to speak to a taxi driver seen in the area at the time of the assault, who may be able to help with our investigations."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101 or contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
