

Spanish keeper Antonio Reguero signs one year deal with Hibs

Hibs have signed Spanish goalkeeper, Antonio Reguero until the end of season 2015/16 to provide competition to Mark Oxley.

The 33 year-old started his career with Real Madrid however an injury hampered his career. In Scotland he has been on the books of Ross County, Kilmarnock and Inverness Caledonian Thistle.

Alan Combe, Goalkeeper Coach, told the club website: "We are delighted that Antonio has agreed to join us for next season. He is an experienced keeper and will be put through his paces alongside Mark and the rest of the squad here in La Manga."

Antonio Reguero said: "This is a great move for me. I've really enjoyed the last three years in Scotland and I'm very pleased with my move to Hibernian. The club face a big challenge next season and I'm looking forward of being part of our bid for promotion."
