

Darren McGregor agrees two year deal with Hibs

Darren McGregor has agreed a two-year deal to join Hibs after leaving Rangers by mutual consent on Monday.

The Edinburgh-born defender previously played for both Cowdenbeath and St Mirren and he was named Player of the Year at Rangers last season.

Speaking to hibernianfc.co.uk, McGregor said: "I'm absolutely delighted to sign for Hibs – it's a dream come true for me to play for the club.

"I've supported Hibs my whole life, so to now get the opportunity to sign for the club is brilliant.

"I enjoyed my time with Rangers and now that has ended I'm really excited about starting the next chapter of my career at my club and helping Hibs to challenge for promotion."

Head Coach Alan Stubbs said: "We're delighted to be able to welcome Darren into the group – his arrival provides real competition for places.

"He has always played well against us and he is strong, experienced player and a good professional.

"We're always looking to strengthen the squad and the arrival of Darren will do exactly that.

"The fact that he is also a lifelong Hibs supporter is great and this move provides him with the opportunity to fulfil the dream of playing for his team."

McGregor has been handed the number 24 shirt and hopefully the club's latest signing will be available to feature in Wednesday night's Scottish League Cup second round tie against Stranraer at Easter Road (kick off 7.45pm).
