

Dine out for a fiver at Boxsmall Market

 Local food traders at Boxsmall Market offer £5 meal deal throughout August

Festival goers, families and food lovers will be able to dine out for just £5 throughout August at Boxsmall Market on the roof terraces of Princes Mall.

Customers will be able to enjoy culinary delights and a soft drink from local traders including: Jones & Son, Orinoco Latin Food, Kampung Ali, Howies and Rabbits Cafe. Sample everything from haggis, burgers, noodles and pulled Scottish beef or lamb, for just £5.

In addition, for families Boxsmall Kids' Zone and ShowBox are also offering £4 all day entry and unlimited kids' shows, including acts performing at the Fringe, bouncy snake and games. Free toy prizes for everyone!

The Boxsmall Market is an architecturally designed market made up of a series of contemporary cubic micro-stores, showcasing the very best of Scottish products from delicious local food to cutting-edge design, clothing and crafts. Exhibitors include Made For You, Meredith Jewellery and Libby Walker illustration.

Shona Donaldson, festival director, says: "Boxsmall Market is all about championing independent retailers and local suppliers and we are thrilled to offer a £5 meal deal throughout August so festival goers, families and foodies can sample local culinary delights cheaply. Our unique and contemporary festival is full of innovation and fun – there is something for foodies, families and everyone to enjoy. Whether it's sampling delicious street food, browsing the market for Scottish crafts, enjoying a show, or bouncy fun at the Bubbleparc, the whole family will be entertained on the roof terraces of Princes Mall.”

Submitted by Stacey Dent

