

Can You Escape the ghosts of Edinburgh's past?

Award winning Edinburgh escape game, Can You Escape, are launching a one-off event for Hallowe'en.

Teams race across the city evading spirits which have come back for the night and are on the look-out for souls to steal.

On their travels teams will have to solve puzzles and clues in order to get the highest points on a leaderboard.

Founder of Can You Escape, Alastair Watson, said: "Escape games lend themselves well to a Halloween theme, we've been planning and looking forward to this event for a while! It's a bit different to our normal games: it involves more physical activity and live actors which will add to the spooky atmosphere on the night. It's sure to be a great event!"

There are less than 60 tickets available for this one off event which will start from the Quakers Meeting House, the early bird price is £12.50 and regular tickets are £17.50. Evaders will be invited to join the Can You Escape team in a nearby pub afterwards.
