

Man In court following serious sexual assault in Edinburgh cemetery

A man has been arrested and charged following a serious sexual assault, which took place within an Edinburgh cemetery in the early hours of Saturday morning.

The 24-year-old is scheduled to appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court today.

Police Scotland have issued a statement thanking the public for their assistance during this investigation