

Creative Edinburgh Awards 2015

✘ Creative Edinburgh has announced the shortlist for the Creative Edinburgh Awards 2015.

The nine awards are designed to celebrate the outstanding practice, innovative thinking and general genius of the creative community of Edinburgh.

Janine Matheson, executive director of Creative Edinburgh, said: “We’re absolutely thrilled with the panel’s selection for the shortlist. We had an overwhelming response to the call for entries and the shortlist highlights a fantastic range of Edinburgh’s creative individuals, businesses and organisations, spanning sectors from literature to performing arts, visual arts, tech & digital, advertising and more.”

The awards are about recognising the wealth of multi-disciplinary talent in the city. The categories have been revamped to make it more accessible to all; with two new categories joining the ranks, Independent, for professionals and/or sole traders and Leadership, for outstanding contributions to the sector from an industry leader.

This year the awards will take place at the newly repurposed Biscuit Factory, a creative hub in the heart of Leith on Thursday 12 November, and tickets can be purchased online. Entertainment will come from Edinburgh based DJ duo Kitchen Disco, back by popular demand and there will be a unique “doughnut” cake from Lovecrumbs patisserie Twelve Triangles.

The event is supported by the headline sponsor FreeAgent and drinks sponsor Belgian beer brand Heverlee, a Belgian lager. Rhona Fyfe, Senior Brand Manager at Heverlee Belgian beer, said: “Heverlee is supportive of creative talent in all forms, so we jumped at the chance to be part of the Creative Edinburgh Awards. We look forward to raising a glass to the city’s creative community at this year’s event at the Biscuit Factory.”

Creative Edinburgh also want to send a big thank you is extended to awards kind venue host The Biscuit Factory and in-kind supporters Hot Tin Roof PR and GF Smith.
