

Family tribute to Leighanne Cameron

A 29-year-old man has been detained by police after the body of Leighanne Cameron was discovered at an address in Calder House Road, Mid Calder last night.

Her family issued a statement paying tribute to her which read: "Leighanne was a much-loved daughter, sister and mother of two young children whom she adored, and who absolutely adored her.

"She was an intelligent and talented individual with huge energy and her tragic loss has left us and her wide circle of genuine friends all utterly devastated.

"We are fully supportive of Police Scotland's investigation into the circumstances of Leighanne's death and ask that our privacy be respected at this difficult time."
