Increased concern for missing man Wieslaw Majek

×

Police are appealing for information after a 44-year-old man was reported missing on Thursday.

Wieslaw Majek was last seen in Muirhouse Way around 10 am on Thursday (8th October).

He is described as being white, around 5ft 10 inches tall of slim build and balding. He may have two or three days of stubble on his face.

Wieslaw was wearing a black tank top, grey jacket, blue jeans and blue and white Adidas shoes.

Officers are now appealing for anyone with information that can help us to trace Wieslaw to please get in touch.

Inspector Simon Acheson said: "We are getting increasingly concerned for Wieslaw's welfare and would urge anyone who has seen him to get in touch with us.

"Wieslaw has a number of friends in the Polish community, particularly in the north of Edinburgh and we would ask them too to get in touch if they know of his whereabouts."

Anyone with information is asked to contact police on 101.
