

Advice for Hibs' fans travelling to Alloa

Hibs' fans heading to The Indodrill Stadium, Alloa tomorrow will occupy the terracing on the East and North sides of the ground and also the East Stand which is now sold out.

Entry to this match is by ticket only and tickets remain on sale at the Hibs' Ticket Office until 5pm on Friday and 10am-3pm on Saturday.

Turnstiles 9 to 13 are for use by Hibs' fans and will open at 1345 hours. Fans who have purchased your ticket before arriving in Alloa you should enter via turnstiles 9,10 or 11.

Tickets will be on sale on Saturday at The Indodrill Stadium and any supporter arriving at the ground who has not purchased a ticket in advance should go to turnstile 12 or 13 only to purchase a ticket and enter the ground.

There is free parking for supporters coaches in Hilton Road, Alloa (just past the Fire Station approaching from the East) and there will be some car parking spaces available here for those who arrive early.

Free car parking is also available in an area set aside within Morrison's Car Park just off Clackmannan Road, Alloa and Stewards will be on hand to direct supporters to the appropriate area. There is no parking at the stadium and "no waiting" restrictions are in place on Clackmannan Road, Hilton Road and Hawkhill and these will be enforced.

Supporters travelling from the east should travel over the Clackmannanshire Bridge to Kilbagie then Gartarry roundabouts via the A876 then A977, which is the main route to Alloa. Up to date traffic information is available on the Traffic Scotland website or follow on Twitter @trafficscotland.