

Commemorative Hibs' 'poppy' shirts to be auctioned

A second set of commemorative shirts worn by the Hibs' squad during the recent victory over St Mirren are now up for auction following a very successful opening bidding session.

The shirts of David Gray, Jason Cummings, Liam Henderson and Marvin Bartley were sold for over £1500, with proceeds from the auction shared between Poppyscotland and the Hibernian Community Foundation.

Six signed jerseys are now up for auction, featuring John McGinn, Paul Hanlon, Darren McGregor, Lewis Stevenson, Martin Boyle and Farid El Alagui. Bidding on the Official Hibernian eBay account ends on Monday 23 November

Fans can bid via the Hibernian FC website.

Poppyscotland provides tailored support and funding to thousands of ex-Servicemen and women as well as other vital services in advice, employment, mobility, respite, housing and mental health support.

The Hibernian Community Foundation is the charitable arm of the club, and provides a wide range of courses and programmes to support Leith and other communities in the Lothians.
