

Open Space public conversation for Edinburgh Northern & Leith

Councillor Lesley Hinds has told us about an event being held tomorrow evening at MacDonald Road Library from 6:00pm.

The Open Space Event will allow discussion on how local communities might benefit from the additional financial powers which Holyrood may have from next spring.

These powers stem from the Smith Commission and the current Scotland Bill and will be of particular interest to those furthest away from national government.

The meeting is open to anyone in the Northern Edinburgh & Leith constituency, or indeed anyone who is otherwise interested.

Register for this free event on Eventbrite here.

Councillor Hinds said: “Our “Open Space” event will explore how local communities might benefit from or influence the direction of these changes.

“The unique format not only encourages stimulating discussion but ensures priorities are identified and followed up.”
