

Unique Christmas gift for the discerning Hibs' fan

Friends and relatives of discerning Hibs' fans worried about finding the ideal Christmas gift need look no further.

'Hibernian Retro' are about to launch a 2016 calendar featuring rare images from bygone days which represent the proud history of the club.

The content of the calendar is being kept secret but after chatting with one of the men behind the production, the Edinburgh Reporter is confident that no-one who receives this unique gift will be disappointed.

A spokesman for Hibernian Retro said: "We're really excited for the imminent launch our very first Hibernian Retro calendar for 2016. The calendar features extremely rare images of players from days gone by, making for what we feel is a unique Christmas present for Hibernian FC supporters both young and old.

"We anticipate the calendar to be very popular, so you can place a pre-order now by emailing hibernianretro@hotmail.com Prices to the UK will be £13.99 which includes postage and packing. International postage will vary.

"All orders will be 100% fulfilled by the second week in December."
