

COMPETITION – Win tickets for the UK's biggest Christmas drive-in cinema

UK's biggest Christmas drive-in cinema coming to the Royal Highland Centre at Ingliston.

With the world's biggest outdoor screen, the Edinburgh Christmas Spectacular, a drive-in cinema festival that promises to be the festive family event of the year, will be playing iconic Christmas films and hosting a variety of festive entertainment at the Royal Highland Centre from the 19th to the 23rd of December.

The Edinburgh Christmas Spectacular will be showing Elf, Home Alone, a sing-along version of Disney's Frozen, Love Actually, The Muppet's Christmas Carol and Die Hard to thousands of people over the course of five days. As well as the movie screenings, visitors can enjoy the Lapland market, food and drink stalls, in-car karaoke and take part in the Christmas dress-up competition to win an array of festive prizes.

The Edinburgh Reporter has tickets to give away to three lucky winners to allow you to enjoy the drive-in free! Use the entry form below and make sure that your answer is in by 10 December 2015 at 12 noon.

Error: Contact form not found.

Created by Global Events, the Edinburgh Christmas Spectacular was designed to replicate the traditional American drive-in cinemas from the 1950s. The event features the world's biggest outdoor LED screen, measuring 100 square metres. All visitors have to do to enjoy the showing is tune in to the movie through the car radio.

On average, British movie-goers now pay £6.53 to see a film at the cinema, whereas tickets to the Edinburgh Christmas Spectacular are just £26 per car. A standard car of five people will pay only £5.20 per person. Visitors can bring their own food and drink or buy the handmade street food from the nearby stalls. The Lapland market has free parking and is open from 10.30am until 9pm between the 19th and 23rd December.

The organisers promise a number of festive treats in Edinburgh city centre in the build up to the festival.

Film screening times are as follows:

Saturday December 19

2.30pm 'Frozen' (sing-along screening)

6.30pm 'Home Alone'

9.30pm 'Elf'

Sunday December 20

2.30pm 'Miracle on 34th Street'

6.30pm 'The Muppet Christmas Carol'

9.30pm 'Love Actually'

Monday December 21

2.30pm 'The Polar Express'

6.30pm 'Frozen' (sing-along screening)

9.30pm 'Bad Santa'

Tuesday December 22

2.30pm 'Elf'

6.30pm 'Home Alone'

9pm 'Elf'

Wednesday December 23

2.30pm 'The Muppet Christmas Carol'

6.45pm 'Frozen' (sing-along screening)

9.30pm 'Die Hard'

General Manager of Global Events, Andrew Shaw, said: "Christmas is a time where families, friends and loved ones can spend quality time together. We wanted to create an event that would appeal to everyone, children and adults, so they could celebrate and enjoy this great holiday together.

"Many people look forward to the Christmas period because of the iconic, festive films that get shown – they play a big part in our Christmas experience now. Along with the Lapland market and other entertainment, we are sure this will be a Christmas to remember for our visitors."

Book your tickets here.

