

Hibs sell out Ibrox ticket allocation

Hibs' ticket allocation for the away fixture against Rangers on Monday 28 December has now sold out.

With Rangers only three points ahead of Hibs in the race for the Championship, this game could go long way in deciding who gets the automatic promotion spot for next season.

The Club received over 900 tickets for the game, and they have sold out before going on general sale, with demand for this fixture being particularly high.

The Hibernian Ticket Office is operating a waiting list if there are any ticket returns by supporters who are unable to attend the game. Fans should contact tickets@hibernianfc.co.uk if they would like to be placed on the waiting list for the fixture.

Supporters are reminded to collect their tickets from the Ticket Office by close of play on Wednesday 23 December.

The Rangers game is sandwiched between two home matches, against Queen of the South (19 December, 3pm kick-off) and Raith Rovers (2 January, 3pm kick-off).
