

SPFL Goal of the Month competition for November 2015

Hibs' strikers Jason Cummings (pictured) and James Keatings have been nominated for November's 'Goal of the Month' award along with Osman Sow of Hearts.

Cummings' opener in Hibs 2-1 win over Rangers and Keatings' strike in the 4-1 away win over St Mirren were selected along with Sow's long range effort against Motherwell.

The full list of nominees for November's #SPFL Goal of the Month competition are as follows...

GOAL A – Jason Cummings (HIBERNIAN v Rangers)

GOAL B – Iain Vigurs (Motherwell v INVERNESS CT)

GOAL C – James Tavernier (RANGERS v Alloa)

GOAL D – James Keatings (St Mirren v HIBERNIAN)

GOAL E – Tom Rogic (Ross County v CELTIC)

GOAL F – Josh Mullin (ALBION ROVERS v Dunfermline)

GOAL G – Robbie Muirhead (Kilmarnock v PARTICK THISTLE)

GOAL H – Osman Sow (Motherwell v HEARTS)

Watch the nominees here and vote for your favourite by commenting below the video.

The SPFL is the leading sporting competition in Scotland, covering the top 42 football teams in the country. Subscribe to the official SPFL YouTube channel to make sure you catch all the best bits from Scottish league football. Scottish football is famous for passionate and exciting matches featuring top teams like Celtic, Rangers, Aberdeen, Hearts, Hibs and Dundee United.

The top league is called the Ladbrokes Premiership. Below the top level, there are a further three leagues – the Ladbrokes Championship, Ladbrokes League 1 and Ladbrokes League 2.

Photo by John Preece