

TERLive! Council's planners decide this morning on former Royal High School

The council's planners have recommended refusal of the application to form a five star hotel in the former Royal High School building. The council's Development Management committee meets this morning to take the final decision and we will be following proceedings live here.