

Walker Signs Hearts Extension

After Igor Rossi and Arnaud Djoum signed extensions to their Hearts deals last week, the Maroon Army were handed another boost today when winger Jamie Walker committed his long-term future to Hearts by signing a deal which contracts him to Hearts until the summer of 2018.

The 22-year-old has made over one hundred first-team appearances for the Maroons, scoring 18 goals.

Meanwhile, Hearts have announced that tickets for their forthcoming William Hill Scottish Cup tie against Aberdeen at Tynecastle will cost £20 for adults and £10 for concessions.

Hearts have also had two of their Ladbrokes Premiership fixtures in January switched for live television coverage. Robbie Neilson's side will now go to New Douglas Park to face Hamilton Academical on Sunday 24th January at 12.45pm before heading to Inverness Caledonian Thistle six days later on Saturday 30th January for another lunch-time kick-off of 12.45pm.
