

William Hill Scottish Cup fourth round draw

The draw for the fourth round of the William Hill Scottish Cup took place at Hampden Park this afternoon.

Scotland National Team Assistant Stuart McCall – who won the famous trophy three times as a player at Rangers – helped draw the balls alongside Scottish FA President Alan McRae.

Hibs, who were the last ball drawn face a tricky tie against fellow Championship side Raith Rovers at Starks Park whilst neighbours Hearts have a home tie against Aberdeen.

Lothian Thistle Hutchison Vale will face either Stenhousemuir or East Kilbride if they overcome Huntly in the third round replay.
