Former Hibernian star Caroline Weir has joined Liverpool Ladies from Bristol City Women.

The 20-year-old Scotland international midfielder trained with Hibs from the age of 10 before making her first team debut against Glasgow City in 2011 after having won the SWFL First division Player of the Year for her performances in the Reserve team.

After 40 appearances and 21 goals for Hibs she moved to top English side Arsenal where she won the FA Women's Cup with in 2014.

She left Arsenal for Bristol City Women but were unable to prevent them being relegated.

Weir told the Liverpool Women's website: "Liverpool Ladies are a really ambitious club and I am confident that we can win more trophies over the next few seasons," _

"It is a great move for me. There are so many talented players here and I am really looking forward to playing alongside them in order to develop my game."
