

Five things you need to know today Edinburgh!

Council budget

David Bowie death – Edinburgh's reaction

Snowflake Run

What's On Listings

Canal View Primary has a new library

We will have more for you later today on the council's budget for the next financial year, which will be agreed upon next week, but meantime the budget consultation has been lauded as a huge success.

There were a total of 4183 responses, up 31% on last year, relating to a variety of topics such as parking charges, school music tuition, allotments, library services, waste collections and council tax.

Read more here.

Following the untimely death of rock star David Bowie earlier in the week Edinburgh along with the rest of the world is reacting by turning to his music and work. Tonight there is a charity concert at the Citrus Club on Grindlay Street to remember the great music, and perhaps give people the opportunity of sharing their grief. It was only last week that the club marked his birthday with a Bowie night.

More details here.

Also at the Cameo tomorrow evening they are showing Labyrinth on the big screen for real Bowie fans.

More details here.

The Cancer Research UK Snowflake Run will take place in the capital on 21 February. This is the first ever 10K to raise money for the charity and it will be held in Holyrood Park where the organisers promise there will be falling snow!

Are you planning on taking part? Then tell us where your fundraising page is and we will feature you in our Five things article!

Read more here.

Our Rosemary Kaye has reinstated a weekly What's On listing due to overwhelming demand for it.

Last week she managed to find 77 things to do in Edinburgh this week – if you are organising an event then do email her to tell her about it. rosemary@theedinburghreporter.co.uk

Edinburgh author Lari Don visited Canal View Primary School on Monday to officially open the new library there. The children's author said: "I am delighted to open this library. I cannot stress enough the importance of reading books for children of all ages."

The children were involved in the design of the new room and you can see more here.

Sign up here for a daily email from The Edinburgh Reporter !
[mc4wp_form]

If you are reading this article in print and would like to visit The Edinburgh Reporter website then simply scan the QR code above with a smartphone or tablet.