

Hibs' January transfer activity

It was a quiet deadline day for Hibs with the majority of targets secured early in the transfer window.

In total Hibs brought in five players, namely Chris Dagnall, Niklas Gunnarsson on loan from Vålerenga, Anthony Stokes on loan from Celtic, Kevin Thomson and Otso Virtanen

Seven players left the club, Antonio Reguero, Dominique Malonga, Adam Eckersley, Henri Anier (returned to Dundee Utd) Islam Feruz (returned to Chelsea) Jordon Forster loaned to Plymouth Argyle and Sam Stanton on loan to Livingston.

Josh Peters has joined the Hibernian Development Squad on a permanent deal from Strathspey Thistle until the end of the season. Aaron Dunsmore and Aaron Scott have joined Edinburgh City and Gala Fairydean respectively on loan until the end of the season on development loans.

Callum Crane and Jordan McGregor will be on loan with Berwick Rangers until the end of the season, with Jamie Insall extending his stay with East Fife and Scott Martin with Forfar Athletic, both also until the end of the season.
