

League Cup Final tickets go on sale from Monday

Tickets for the Scottish League Cup Final presented by Utilita go on sale from Monday 22 February at 10am.

Hibs have been given an initial allocation of 25,800 tickets, with more available to the Club should there be demand.

Tickets will be sold based on priority loyalty points waves. Supporters are able to purchase two tickets per client reference number to facilitate group purchases. In order to ease the purchase process for groups and families, loyalty points will not be awarded for this match.

Ticket Waves

10am Monday 22 February: 90 point or more

10am Thursday 25 February: 1 point or more

10am Monday 29 February: General sale

Hibs TV subscribers will have now received an e-mail from the Club with regards to ticket arrangements, and Kicks for Kids supporters will receive an e-mail on Monday.

Loyalty Points

As noted above, loyalty points will not be awarded for this match. Supporters should not re-allocate additional tickets when purchasing as it will not allow them to process if the person they have allocated to does not have the required number of points.

The Ticket Office are currently processing the loyalty points for HSL members for whom they have a client reference number for. Any questions relating to HSL loyalty points should be directed to info@hiberniansupporters.co.uk.

Prices

Tickets will be available in all four stands at Hampden, and are priced at £25 for adults and £10 for juveniles (15 and under).

Tickets will be available online, at the Hibernian Ticket Office and through the Hibernian Call Centre
