

Police enquiry after young girl approached on way to school

A police investigation is underway after a young child was approached by a man in a car on her way to Craighour Primary School around 8.40am on Friday 5th February.

The man who was described as being well dressed was driving a dark coloured 4x4 vehicle.

A police spokesman said: "Police are investigating after a man stopped in a vehicle and spoke to a young child as she made her way to school in the Craighour area of Edinburgh.

"The incident happened at around 8.40am on Friday, February 5. The child was unharmed however police are carrying out various lines of inquiry as part of their ongoing investigation and are in contact with the City of Edinburgh Council Education Department.

"Anyone with information is asked to contact police on 101."