

Witness appeal after collision between cyclist and van in Rodney Street

Police are appealing for witnesses following a road traffic collision on Rodney Street which took place around 5.20pm yesterday and involved a cyclist and a white Transit van.

A 35-year-old woman sustained minor injuries, and was taken to the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary.

The driver of the van did not stop at the scene.

PC Fraser Mitchell of the Road Policing Unit said: "At this time, we're still working to establish the full circumstances surrounding this collision and are asking anyone who witnessed this to come forward.

"Anyone who saw a white Transit van in the area around this time, or has information which can help us trace the driver, is also urged to get in touch."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101 or contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

For advice on how to stay safe as a cyclist, please contact 101 or visit the Police Scotland website at www.scotland.police.uk/keep-safe/road-safety/adult-cyclists