

COMPETITION – Win a kilo of the smoothest Scottish tablet!

There is nothing like a wee bit of real Scottish tablet to keep you going in the days before the spring and summer weather really begins to work its magic on you.

The Edinburgh Reporter has teamed up with the Loch Leven Tablet Company (so smooth it melts in your mouth!) to bring you a little something to cheer you up.

A kilo of tablet is on offer to the winner who will be picked from all the entrants after the closing date on 13 March 2016.

The Loch Leven Tablet Company produce a great line in wedding tablet or just something to satisfy your sweet cravings. Their tablet is made in

We met Donnie Montgomery a week or two back and he shared some of his secrets with us – although reserved a little silence on the top secret bits!

The sweet prize will be awarded to someone who signs up to our Daily Newsletter between now and 13 March 2016. Enter below by 12 noon on 13 March 2016.

And for those of you who don't win there is a special Edinburgh Reporter discount package here!

Business Focus : Loch Leven Tablet Company from Phyllis Stephen on Vimeo.

All you have to do to enter is fill in your email and postal address details here and sign up to our daily newsletter to keep up with the news the way we tell it (tell your friends to do it too!) :

Error: Contact form not found.