

Enquiry ongoing after teenage girl's death in East Calder

A 15-year-old girl has died and two others were taken to hospital after emergency services were called to a house in East Calder at 9.50am on Sunday morning.

The death is being treated as unexplained and a police enquiry is underway to determine the circumstances.

The victim's name has not been released at this time.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "Police in West Lothian were called to an address in the East Calder area at around 9.50am on Sunday March 27 following a report of concern for a teenager.

"The Scottish Ambulance Service attended and a 15-year-old girl was sadly pronounced dead a short time later.

"Two girls, also aged 15, were taken to St John's Hospital as a precaution. The death is currently being treated as unexplained.

"A report has been submitted to the procurator fiscal and inquiries are continuing."
