

Missing Aberdeen man has links to Edinburgh

Police are looking to trace Aberdeen man Allan Cuthbertson (58) who has been reported missing from his home in the Northfield area of the city.

Mr. Cuthbertson was last seen by a family member at his home address at about 7.45 am on Sunday 6 March 2016.

He is described as being 5' 8" in height, of slim build, pale complexion, short cropped dark brown hair, brown eyes and an Edinburgh accent.

Mr Cuthbertson was last seen wearing a khaki green hooded parka jacket with fur hood, wrangler jeans and grey loafer type shoes. He wears glasses and is a heavy smoker.

He may frequent Aberdeen City Centre and has connections to Edinburgh.

Investigating Officer Sergeant Stuart Gray said: "We are anxious to trace Mr. Cuthbertson as he has been missing for a number of days, which would be out of character, and naturally this is a worrying time for his family and friends.

"We are appealing to anyone who may have seen Allan in recent days or have information on his whereabouts to contact us to assist with our enquiries."

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 if you wish to remain anonymous.
