

Ray Quinn drops into Easter Road – for a kilt!

Stage and TV star Ray Quinn dropped into Edinburgh for a flying visit before he comes back next month to star in Tonight...From The West End.

The former X Factor and Dancing on Ice star was in town on a secret mission...to get measured up for a new kilt!

Ray hopes to wow the audience at The Usher Hall in April by taking to the stage in traditional Highland dress.

Fitness fan Ray will show off his impressive physique in a stunning Blue Ramsay tartan after being kitted out by Bowden's Formal Menswear of Easter Road.

Tonight From The West End will feature classic show tunes from Broadway and the West End and is sure to have audiences on their feet. Music lovers can expect a medley of hits from shows such as The Lion King, Saturday Night Fever, Fame, Wicked, Mamma Mia and Oliver!

See Ray in action in Tonight...From The West End at The Usher Hall on Saturday 23 April 2016. Tickets here.
