

Travel advice for Hibs' fans heading to Kirkcaldy

Hibs' supporters travelling to the Scottish Championship match at Starks Park, Pratt Street, Kirkcaldy tomorrow will occupy the McDermid Stand (North) at the stadium.

Tickets remain on sale at the Ticket Office at Easter Road Stadium and will be available from there until 2pm on Saturday. Tickets will also be available on match day at Starks Park from the Ticket Pod at the rear of the McDermid Stand. They will be on sale until kick-off on Saturday and are priced at £20 for adults and £10 for concessions (over 65 and under 16) proof of eligibility will be required.

Supporters coaches should park within the Beveridge Park car park and there is an overspill facility at the west end of the esplanade.

Car parking is available at Beveridge Park car park and at Kirkcaldy Railway Station. Parking is also available on street out with the restricted area and there is also plenty of parking available at the esplanade.

Fans are reminded that Pratt Street will be closed to all traffic at 2.30pm at the latest, or earlier if required, in the interests of safety.

At the present time there are no roadworks on the M90 motorway between Edinburgh and the A92 regional road nor in the vicinity of Starks Park. For up to date travel information visit the Traffic Scotland website or follow on Twitter @trafficscotland.
