

Increased concern for missing Andrew McGhee

Police are appealing for information to help trace missing man Andrew (Andy) McGhee who was last seen in Leith on Sunday 24th April.

Since then the 50 year old, who also uses the name Donald Swan, has not been in contact with friends or family and concern is now growing for his welfare.

It is believed that Andy may have travelled from Edinburgh to the Newcastle area after leaving his home address.

Andy is described as white, 6ft 2 inches tall, of medium build, with brown eyes, very short grey hair and dark eyebrows.

He has a tattoo on his left fore arm with the word "Caroline". He was wearing blue jeans, a distinctive white t-shirt with red handprints and the word Strongbow on it and a black jacket.

Police Inspector Murray Tait of Craigmillar Police Station said:" We are growing increasingly concerned for Andy's welfare.

"Anyone who has seen him or has any information on his whereabouts should contact Police Scotland on 101. "
