

Missing Crieff woman and daughter have links to Edinburgh

Officers in Tayside are looking for help to trace a 34 year old woman and her 6 year old daughter who have been reported missing from the Crieff area.

Emma Malloy and her daughter Leah were last seen in Crieff on Friday 22 April 2016 however family members have not seen or heard of her since. They were reported missing today (Monday 25 April 2016).

Emma is described as 5ft 2" tall, of medium build with shoulder length dark hair. She is believed to be wearing a red coat.

Leah Malloy is described as 4ft in height with light brown hair. It is not known what clothes she would be wearing.

Emma's disappearance is out of character and there is therefore concern for Emma and Leah's welfare.

Emma does have connections to the Leeds and Hull areas in England and possibly in the Edinburgh and Lothians areas as well.

Anyone with information that could help officers trace Emma and Leah is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101.
