

What's on in Edinburgh this week – Five Fabulous Fundraisers

Diocesan Coffee Morning: come and enjoy tea, coffee & home-baked cakes, meet the office staff and help to raise money for the Vine Trust's valuable work with street children in Peru. 10.30am-2pm, Tuesday 21st April, Scottish Episcopal Church Diocesan Office 21a Grosvenor Crescent. ❌

Yulia Allan: Art Exhibition + Live Music. Landscape artist Yulia launches an exhibition of oil paintings, which is being held in aid of Queensferry Care, a charity providing quality support for older people and carers in South Queensferry, Ratho, Ratho Station, Dalmeny, Newbridge and Kirkliston. The evening will also feature a live performance by an accomplished young violinist. 6.30-9.30pm, Friday 22nd April, Eric Liddell Centre, 15 Morningside Road. All welcome.

Polwarth Nearly New Sale: children's clothes and toys, baby equipment, maternity clothes, pushchairs and much more! Raising funds for Muscular Dystrophy UK, Max Appeal (supporting families affected by DiGeorge Syndrome, VCFS and 22q11.2 deletion) and Polwarth Parish Church. 11am-1pm, Saturday 23rd April, Polwarth Parish Church, Polwarth Terrace. ❌

❌ Christian Aid Forth Bridge Cross, Forth Road Bridge, South Queensferry. Register at either side of the bridge. Reception from 1pm, walk 2-5pm, 23rd April. For more information email Amy Menzies, Events Fundraising Officer or call her on 0141 241 61

❌ Good Life, Good Death, Good Grief: a comedy night with ❌ Keir McAllister, Stuart Mitchell, Elaine Miller and Gary Faulds, hosted by Susan Morrison, in aid of the Scottish Partnership for Palliative Care, which aims to promote equitable access throughout Scotland to high quality palliative care for individuals and families on the basis of need. All ticket proceeds from tonight's evening of themed comedy will go directly to the Partnership. 8.30pm (doors 7.30pm), Tuesday 19th April, The Stand, 5 York Place. Tickets £7: call the Box Office on 0131 558 7272 to reserve yours.