

Four youngsters released by Hibs

Hibs youngsters Jordan Sinclair, Aaron Scott, Sean Brennan, and Jordan McGregor will leave the Club

Sinclair, 19, joined the Club in the summer of 2009, and has been involved in the Academy since, and made his first-team debut in this season's Scottish League Cup run, coming on as a substitute for Sam Stanton in the victory over Montrose.

Brennan, who is regularly seen during warm-ups at Easter Road, made the bench for Hibernian's William Hill Scottish Cup Fourth Round tie away to Raith Rovers in January, and joined the Academy in 2011. The goalkeeper, 19, played his part in two East of Scotland Shield victories in 2013 and 2014.

McGregor has recently enjoyed a loan spell with Berwick Rangers alongside Callum Crane, and helped guide the Shielfield Park club to safety in Ladbrokes League 2. The 19-year old central defender joined in the summer of 2014 and scored in that year's edition of the East of Scotland Shield against Hearts at Easter Road.

Scott, who is a central midfielder, joined Hibernian from Hearts in January 2015 – making his debut against his former club in a mini derby on the day of the move. The 18-year old played against Ayr United in a pre-season friendly at Somerset Park, and recently enjoyed a loan move to gala Fairydean.

A club spokesman said: "Hibernian would like to thank the players for their time at the Club and wish them all the best for their future endeavours."
