

Potential hectic schedule for Hibs in promotion quest

Hibs face a hectic schedule in their quest for promotion, with a potential seven game in just over three weeks.

By failing to clinch second place, Hibs now enter the play-offs at the quarter-final stage and travel to Kirkcaldy on Wednesday night to face in-form Raith Rovers.

The second leg will take place next Saturday at Easter Road with a 12.30 kick off.

Despite BT Sport having the right to show these games, neither will be on TV.

The TV company further annoyed supporters by insisting that the semi-finals are brought forward to Tuesday 10th May and Friday 13th May, leaving the winners of the quarter final with only three days recovery time instead of four.

Should Hibs progress, they will also have to play at home in the lead up to the Scottish Cup final on 21st May then away from home a few days later.

Fixture details have now been confirmed for the quarter-finals and semi-finals of the Ladbrokes Premiership play-offs.

Premiership play-off quarter-final, 1st leg

Wednesday 4 May, 2016

Raith Rovers v Hibernian

Kick-off 7.45pm

Premiership play-off quarter-final, 2nd leg

Saturday 7 May, 2016

Hibernian v Raith Rovers

Kick-off 12.30pm

Premiership play-off semi-final, 1st leg

Tuesday 10 May, 2016

Hibernian or Raith Rovers v Falkirk

Live on BT Sport, kick-off 7.45pm

Premiership play-off semi-final, 2nd leg

Friday 13 May, 2016

Falkirk v Hibernian or Raith Rovers

Live on BT Sport, kick-off 7.45pm